

Vesterheim
Norwegian-American Museum

Annual Report
January 1-December 31, 2014

2014 at Vesterheim Museum!

The year 2014 included many “firsts” for Vesterheim, with exciting exhibitions, special honors, extraordinary people, notable occasions, and important projects.

In January, the exhibition Favorite Things was our first effort at giving the public an opportunity to select the items for display. Curated by Collections Manager Alison Dwyer, staff and volunteers nominated 50 popular artifacts from Vesterheim’s collection. Pictures of those items were on our website and people were encouraged to vote to determine the “favorite” pieces to make-up the exhibition. It was a fun endeavor.

Another first for Vesterheim was to display two very distinct and artful traveling exhibitions from Norway, curated by Norwegian artists. Flora Metamorphicae was a colorful display of hundreds of one-of-a-kind ceramic flowers and plants created independently by six Norwegian artists. In March, two of the six artists came to Vesterheim to give gallery talks and provide a workshop for Luther College art education students, made possible by the American Scandinavian Foundation. This special exhibition was sponsored by Dan Huebner, The Iowa Arts Council, Sons of Norway Foundation, Sons of Norway Valdres Lodge, and Joseph Krieger.

In addition, the museum hosted Restored Connection: A Dream of Cultural Identity, sponsored by Mary Dunea and an anonymous donor. This special exhibition was the result of a research project by Norwegian artists Regina Osbakk and Line Anda Dalmar. They examined how national identity occurs, and how it is inherited and transformed through generations.

Vesterheim continued to highlight connections to modern Norway by presenting Scandinavian Modern Design: Norwegian Enamel, an exhibition of Norwegian enamel design and production in the mid-nineteenth century. It was sponsored by Mary Mills Dunea, Isabelle and R.L. Dyck, Becky and Bob Shaw, Humanities Iowa, and the National Endowment for the Humanities, with additional support.

We also were fortunate to host Love Norway X, a flag sculpture by Ian Ward Garland from Norway, was on view in Vesterheim’s lobby.

Two other exhibitions focused on Norwegian and Norwegian-American history. Alt for Norge, honored the 200th anniversary of the Norwegian constitution. Chicago Norske Klub, sponsored Chicago Friends of Vesterheim and Rob and Evy Alsaker, presented the history of this Norwegian-American cultural center in Chicago.

First-place honors were bestowed as Vesterheim earned the most votes in a social media campaign to become Silos and Smokestacks National Heritage Area’s “Site of the Year.” And we were awarded Trip Advisor’s Certificate of Excellence Award for the first time.

In 2014, Vesterheim received its largest estate gift to date from Trygve Lønnebotn who died in April. A great friend and supporter, he joined the board of trustees in 2009, chaired and served on committees, and earned a silver Kroneklubben for his lifetime gifts to Vesterheim. He will be remembered for his endearing personality and good nature, and we are fortunate to have known him.

We also marked the passing of Olive Nordby, age 99. Survived by her husband Dr. Gene Nordby of 72 years, Olive is best remembered for her artistry. Two of her iconic works for Vesterheim included a beautiful woodcut of Bethania Church, which helped pay for the church’s restoration, and her image of the Egge Koren log house, which commemorated the 150th anniversary of the Koren family’s arrival in America. A member since 1967, Olive was an Honorary Trustee, Founders Council, Valhalla member, Kroneklubben recipient, and an active participant in the Madison Friends of Vesterheim.

Syttende Mai in 2014 was a special occasion to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Norwegian Constitution. We are grateful to Jeff and Marilyn Roverud and Rockwell-Collins, Decorah Operations, for their sponsorship.

Front cover: Norwegian artist Kari Aasen (right) gave a gallery talk for Flora Metamorphicae during the exhibition opening.

Bruce Friell and Tanya Tysland of Gundersen Health System, who sponsor Vesterheim’s third-grade program Window on the World, watch as Vesterheim volunteer Dennis Barnaal helps with the ropemaking activity.

Norwegian artists and guest curators Line Anda Dalmar and Regina Osbakk welcomed visitors to the opening reception of the exhibition A Restored Connection: A Dream of a Cultural Identity.

We were excited to complete the museum's new Visitor Guide. The booklet is a colorful, floor-by-floor guide that highlights the museum's permanent and special exhibitions and outdoor buildings. We are very pleased with the outcome and thank Wayne and Dorothy Johnson for supporting this project.

A facilities goal to achieve energy efficiency became a reality thanks to Ed and Joyce Epperly. Their generous gift provided the funds to change to efficient compact fluorescent light bulbs throughout the museum and the Westby Torgerson Education Center—a project involving over 600 lights!

These are just a few of the many programs and projects that Vesterheim presented in 2014 with the commitment of dedicated supporters. Everything we do is attributable to our wonderful friends and donors. Mange takk to the following folks for their generosity this year—Dan and Bonnie Huebner, sponsors of the Fourth Grade Pioneer Immersion Program; Gundersen Health System for their support for the Window on the World, Third Grade Farm Program for Decorah Schools; Jon and Mary Hart for their support of Barneløpet in honor of Kjell Arne Berntson; Duane and Eileen Bruening for their sponsorship of the Norwegian Christmas Celebration; Kristine Erickson in memory of her father Gordon W. Strom for sponsoring the magazine Vesterheim, Vol. 12, Issue 1, Ties That Bind; and John Thompson, Thompson Investment Management, Inc. for Vesterheim, Vol. 12, Issue 2, Holiday Craft. We are grateful for every one of our donors and your continued support.

In closing, Executive Director, Steve Johnson announced his plans to retire in 2016. We are grateful to Steve for his years of service and plans are underway to conduct a national search for his successor.

Barneløpet, a children's cross-country ski event, was sponsored by of Decorah and Sons of Norway Lodges—Valdres #503 in Decorah, Iowa, Heimbygda #376 in Lanesboro, Minnesota, and Valheim #364 in Spring Grove, Minnesota, and by Jon and Mary Hart in honor of Norwegian skier Kjell Arne. The Harts were Kjell's host parent when he was an exchange student at the Decorah High School.

Jim Nelson, Vesterheim's Facilities Manager, with Joyce and Ed Epperly of Decorah, sponsors of Vesterheim's all new LED lighting.

In partnership with Decorah's ArtHaus, Barnetimen (Children's Hour) is free to all pre-schoolers and their caregivers thanks to our sponsors. Back row: Vesterheim's Steve Johnson and Nicholas Klein; sponsors Keith and Amy Bruening; Karen Henning from sponsor Farmers & Merchants Savings Bank; and Vesterheim's Jennifer Kovarik. Front row: ArtHaus Directors Eric and Jenni Petersen-Brant with many Barnetimen participants!

Winners of the live auction items at the 41st Annual Nordic Celebration and Marketplace in the Twin Cities—Roberta LaFleur Moore, Jorunn and Finn Henrikssen, and Doug and Nancy Watkins.

VALHALLA SOCIETY

We invite our members and friends to help us preserve immigrant ethnic heritage by joining the Valhalla Society. When you state your intention to make Vesterheim a beneficiary of a planned gift, you will be enrolled in the roster of honor, and your name will be added to the plaque on the first floor of the museum's Main Building.

ENDOWMENT FUNDS

Endowment funds earn income annually, a portion of which is used for each endowment's stated purpose. The remainder of the income is reinvested to perpetuate the endowment.

We invite contributions to any of the listed endowment funds, or the creation of new named endowments. A gift of $25,000 or more can create a new named endowment and can be an enduring way to honor or memorialize a friend or family member.

Building endowment funds is one of the most important ways to ensure Vesterheim's financial health. Each gift is an investment in the future of Vesterheim, one of America's most treasured cultural resources.
